Message: Each of these links infringe my client's copyrighted recording Anything You Synthesize. After careful consideration, no fair use, fair dealing, or a similar exception applies to the above. This notice is under Section 512(c) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA"), and, once again, my client Yesh seeks the removal of the aforementioned infringing material from your servers. I, on behalf of my client, demand Audiomack immediately notify the infringers of this notice and inform them of their duty to remove the infringing material immediately, and notify them to cease any further posting of infringing material to your server in the future. Please also be advised that law requires Audiomack, as a service provider, to remove or disable access to the infringing materials upon receiving this notice. Under the DMCA Audiomack enjoys immunity from a copyright lawsuit provided that it acts with deliberate speed to investigate and rectify ongoing copyright infringement. If Audiomack does not investigate and remove or disable the infringing material, this immunity is lost. On this point, Audiomack's on-line form is impossible to find, and once found, impossible to complete. This does not meet Audiomack's legal obligations under the DMCA. Rest assured, this is the fourth Take-Down Notice and in the event these posts are not removed immediately, we will file an action against Twitter in the Federal Court for the Southern District of New York. I am providing
